

Porolepis* (Crossopterygii) from the Lower Devonian of the Holy Cross Mountains

Julian Kulczycki

Acta Palaeontologica Polonica 05 (1), 1960: 65-104

On the basis of the here described remains a new interpretation is given of the structure of the anterior part of the head in Porolepis. The writer postulates also the lack of direct relationship between holoptychioids (Porolepiformes) and tetrapods.
